The models - 1 and 2 are inertial delay models as the changes in input transferred to the output only after a change in input is prolonged till a threshold value.

The models 3, 4 and 5 are transport delay models as the changes in input are reflected immediately at the output.